

CATALOG ADDENDUM-2 dated 10/11/2017

The following update will be made a part of the Trinity College of Florida 2017-2018 Academic Catalog:

To the Course Description Section, under the GENERAL MINISTRY label, p.78:

GNMN3311 Small Group Development

3 Credit Hours

This course surveys the movement in our day with materials, programs, and techniques of small group growth within churches. An examination of best practices and models will be studied. Actual implementation will begin as part of this course as well as a cohesive strategy for how small groups fits into the overall function and purpose of the local church.

To the Course Description Section, under the INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES label, p.80

Course name updated to read Interdisciplinary Studies Internship (from General Studies Internship).

To the Course Description Section, under the PHILOSOPHY label, p.81:

PHI1600 Applied Ethics

3 Credit Hours

This course is a practical overview of key issues, questions and concepts in Applied Ethics. The course identifies the foundation and principles of Biblical ethics as is situated in a historic view of moral theory. After identifying Biblical ethics it seeks to apply Christian ethics to contemporary professional issues and situations present in public square.

Dennis E Cox, Ph.D.

Dennis E. Cox, Ph.D.

Vice President for Academic Affairs