FOREWORD

Prayer has played an important part in the publication of this yearbook. It has been the desire of the editorial staff to present to the students and friends of Trinity College a yearbook to be a record of the times that God has met the needs of the students and the school.

We present the 1956 edition of The Beacon to you with a prayer that it will challenge your heart to exercise more faith in God.

THE WORD OF GOD

Throughout the ages man has found that the only secure thing he can grasp is the Word of God. God's Word has withstood the test of man and time. It has been a comfort to the distraught soul in the time of trouble; it has brought encouragement to a defeated and frustrated people; it has inspired men to accomplish great things for God and their country.

We here at Trinity are thankful for a college that centers its educational program around the Word of God. Through the experiences of our spiritual life at school we come to better understand and love the word that God has given us.

We realize that "the word of the Lord endureth forever". We need never fear that it is outmoded or obsolete. We can depend upon it to guide our feet as the Psalmist has written, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." Ps. 119:105.

As Christians we feed upon the word and exclaim "How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea sweeter than honey to my mouth." Ps. 119:103. As we taste and see how sweet it is, our appetites grow and we are drawn closer to God through His word.

It is important never to forget that the great salvation we have and the story of the love of God for us is recorded only in His Word. We should never be ashamed of God's Word, but state as the Apostle Paul wrote in Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God to everyone that believeth; to the Jew first and also to the Greek."

The theme of The Beacon for 1956 is to stress the importance of the Word of God in the lives of young men and women who have dedicated their lives to Christian service.

DEDICATION

One of the most faithful and devoted workers of Trinity College, Mr. Massey has become part of the life of each student who attends here. His loving spirit and his interest in the affairs of the students has endeared each one of us to call him "Pop".

As Dean of Men he is kept occupied with the duties of guiding the fellows in the way of spiritual growth and discipline. He always has time to listen to whatever a person may want to tell him.

Another duty which Mr. Massey performs with great skill is the supervision of the general upkeep of the buildings and yard. Much of the physical beauty of the college has been developed because of the interest Mr. Massey takes in his work. Because of his interest in Trinity College we the staff dedicate the 1956 Beacon to Mr. Massey with the prayer that God may continue to bless his life and reward him richly.

TO THE CLASS OF '56"

The days which you have spent here and the lessons learned, in and out of class rooms, will have an important part in determining your success in the field of Christian service. We believe that your coming to Trinity College was in the will of the Lord. The years you have been with us have gone by swiftly.

Finding your place in the will of the Lord, as you serve Him in days to come, is of utmost importance. Some of you will probably be in the forefront in the field of Christian service and it may be that your name will be widely heralded while others may serve the Lord in a very obscure place, but wherever God calls you is the most important place in the world for you to serve Him.

Trinity College is about to close twenty-four years of faithful service in training youth "for Christian service." Next year will be our "SILVER JUBILEE YEAR." I know you will do your part in promoting the interest of your alma mater as we seek to clear the school of all indebtedness and go forward with plans for an enlarged and greater TRINITY COLLEGE.

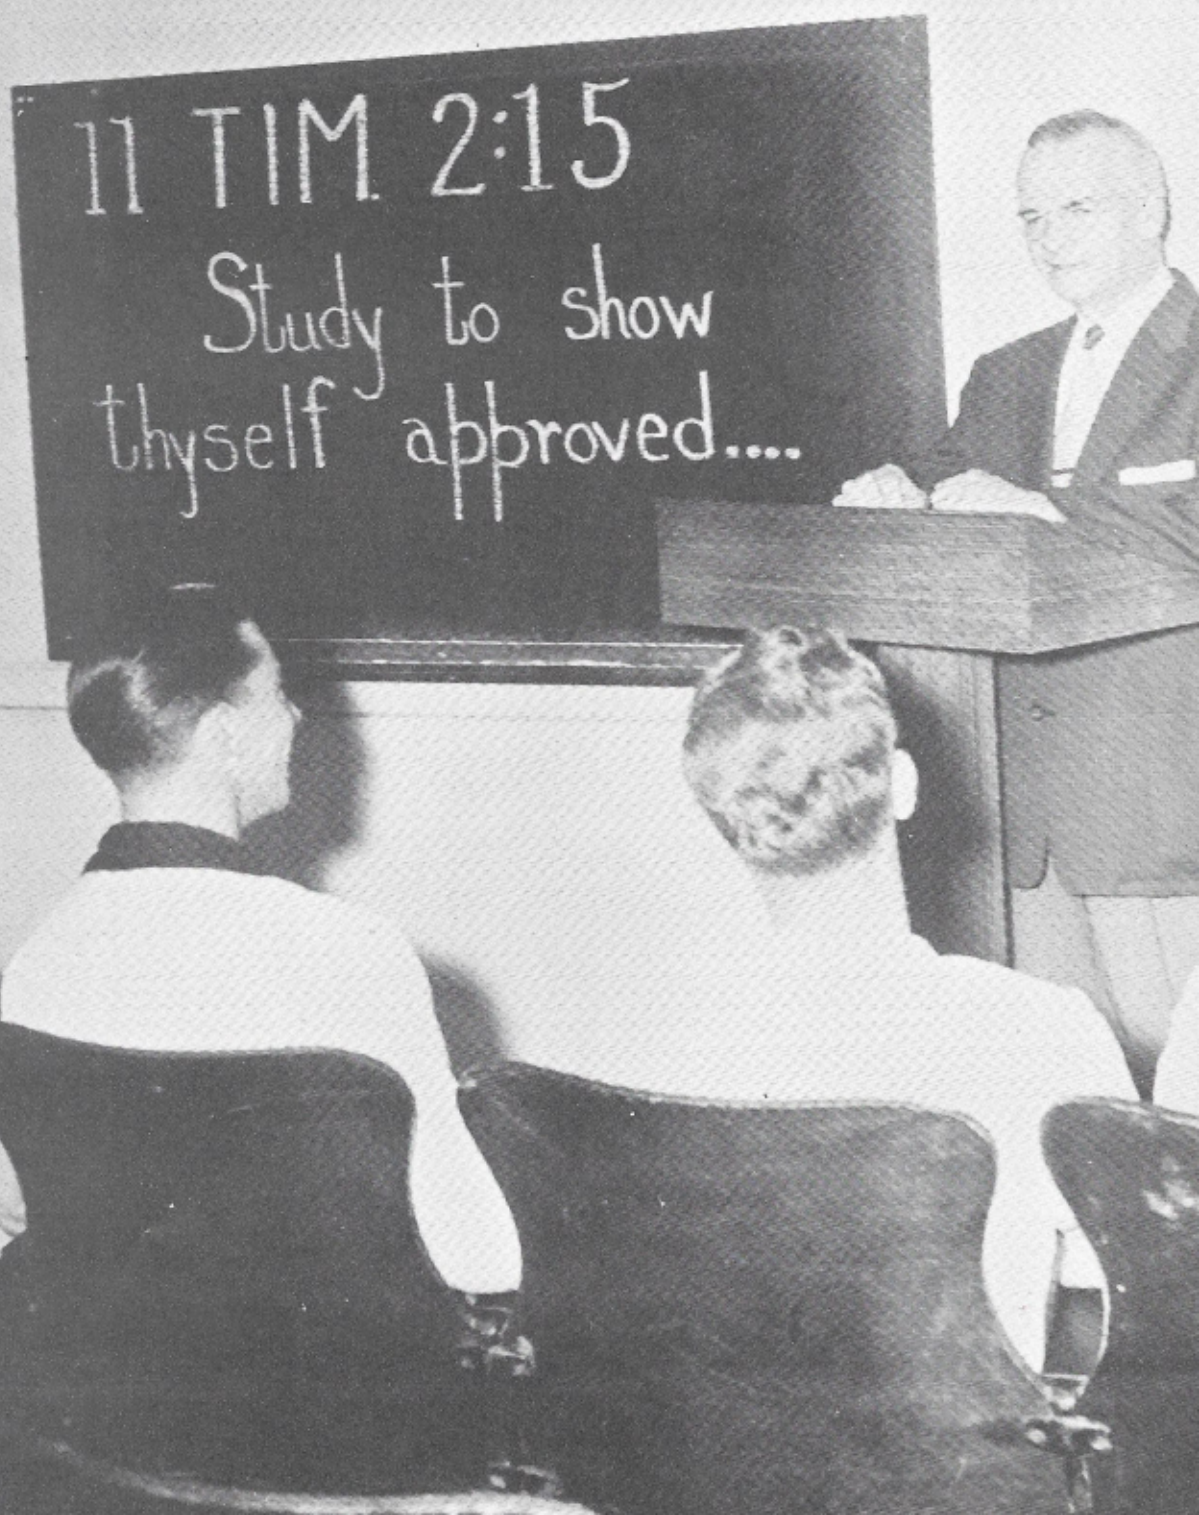

You are becoming a part of the distinguished body, known as "Trinity College Alumni." I sincerely congratulate you. Mrs. Watson joins me in wishing and praying for you God's very best.

Yours for Youth,

President
WTW:mf

"All hail the power of Jesus' name." With this another television program is started. For half an hour the gospel message is given forth in music - music of soloists, duets, trios, quartettes, and the television choir.

Each Saturday television viewers in this section of Florida see and hear the students from Trinity proclaim God's Word in song. The part they cannot see is that of many long hours of practice put in by each student taking part in the program. The choir has one hour set aside each week-day afternoon especially for them while the smaller groups have to practice whenever they can find time and a place.

This is a new phase of ministry that God has given our school just this year. On November 5th our first program was given and many friends in this area registered their approval. We certainly praise God for the way He has blest and used this work!

Again this year we have our two radio programs; thirty minutes on Saturday and fifteen minutes on Sunday. These, too, take late hours from students participating on them. "Sing them over again to me, wonderful words of life." When we think of just how wonderful these words are, and we realize what they may mean to someone who is without Christ, we know that all the time spent in preparing these programs is never wasted, but invested. We also know that we cannot do them without God's guidance so we look to Him and ask, "Saviour, like a Shepherd, lead us!"

The Ambassadors Quartet is a popular musical group which sings regularly over the Trinity College broadcasts. This combination has been a blessing to many thousands as they have sung their way into the hearts of people with the well known gospel songs.

One of the most popular musical groups of Trinity College this year is the Melody Trio. They blend their voices together to sing the wonderful praises of Jesus Christ our Lord.

This group besides appearing weekly on the television program, sings at many religious functions throughout the Tampa Bay Area. Last summer the group traveled the East Coast with the school president, Dr. Watson in behalf of Trinity College.

The announcer and soloist for the Trinity College Radio Program is Al Tedder. Al is well known in this area for his fine vocal interpretation of hymns and gospel songs.

It is the desire of the student body of Trinity College to present radio and television broadcasts of good professional quality to edify and honor the name of Christ. Each program is sent over the airwaves in an attitude of prayer that it might help some soul to find Christ as his personal Savior.

A weekly feature on our television program is the singing of Jane Fromer and Al Tedder. They blend their voices together to sing of the wonderful grace and love of Jesus Christ our Lord.

In addition to their television and radio appearances they also sing regularly at Youth For Christ rallies, and churches in the Tampa Bay Area. They are another example of talent from Trinity College dedicated to God.

Singing for the glory of our Lord is a full time job for the Evangelaire Quartet. The quartet appears each week on the Trinity College Television Program. With the help of Miss Eakin at the piano they sing favorite Gospel numbers to the pleasure of many thousands of viewers.

Besides their television appearances and radio work this quartet is kept busy throughout the week singing at civic functions, revival services, and youth rallies. This group has dedicated their time and talent to carrying forth the name of the Lord to all people through the ministry of music.

EXTENSION WORK

TRACT CLUB

The theme of our book "The Word of God" is distributed each Wednesday afternoon in Clearwater and the surrounding towns by the students of Trinity College. The students prepare themselves for this ministry by meeting for prayer at 2 p.m. in the college library. After a season of talking to the Author of the Word, they then leave on the college bus to the area which has been designated by the club officers.

As the bus proceeds along this area students are left at each block for a house to house canvassing, leaving Gospel tracts and in many cases reading and discussing the Word of God with residents of the homes. The students having been properly prepared with prayer are poised and eager to answer any questions about God's Word which people might like to ask. Many souls have been saved by this ministry of the students and many hearts have been encouraged as they come to understand the Word of God better.

The officers of this Tract Club which operated the first semester of the school year were: George Keller, President; Al Waitman, Vice-President; and Cheryl Fish, Secretary. Under the supervision of these officers hundreds of Gospel tracts have been distributed in this area.

After about one and one-half hours of distributing God's Word the students then board the bus and start tallying the many glorious experiences they have had that afternoon visiting people in their homes and telling them about the Lord Jesus Christ. This is a rewarding work which gives a wealth of experience to students in personal evangelism and soul winning.

As an encouragement to those students who distribute Gospel tracts they claim this promise found in Isaiah 55:11, "So shall my Word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it."

REST HOMES

RestHomes have provided some of the most attentive listeners that the students of Trinity College have found. It is a joy and pleasure to bring the gospel of good news and cheer to these people who are shut in. These services have proved a great blessing - another example of how God blesses His Word wherever it is given.

---

"Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Proverbs 22:6

With this Bible verse in mind, it is a great challenge to Trinity students to teach the Word of God as they are called upon to serve as Sunday School teachers. It is a real blessing to see these children learn Bible verses and stories, and become familiar and grounded in the Word of God.

JAIL WORK

A group of students standing outside the county jail after a jail service.

One of the most fruitful ministries of this school year has been our work in the county jail. We consider it a great privilege to be able to go in and minister to these men and women, and the results have been gratifying. Many precious souls have been saved through the preaching of God's Word and the testimonies of the students of Trinity College.

Each Sunday afternoon at 4:15 the students meet in the library for prayer in preparation for this service, which starts at five o'clock at the jail. With this foundation of prayer, these services have proved to be a great blessing. Only God knows the final results of these services, but we can rejoice in the transformed lives which come about by the power of the blood of Jesus Christ. It has humbled us as we have seen the power of God work in our midst in these services.

COLORED SCHOOL

of colored children.

"That the generation to come . . . even the children which should be born . . . might set their hope in God . . ."

Ten of our young ladies, with burdened hearts for the children of today - adults of tomorrow, carry the Gospel into one of the city's elementary colored schools every Thursday afternoon. The Lord has given us the opportunity to have a thirty minute Bible hour in each class at Williams colored school. "Child Evangelism is one of the greatest mediums for reaching future generations for Christ."

What a thrill in our hearts to enter a classroom of little dark faces eager to sing praises to our Redeemer! Strains of "Jesus loves the little children; red and yellow, black and white, they are precious in His sight . . ." as well as many other choruses, echo throughout the school.

We are amazed at the attentiveness of the little children as they see Bible stories "live" on the flannel graph board. Their alert minds quickly grasp the portions of scripture given to them each week for memorization.

Our hearts are blessed as we see little hands raise to answer questions about the story, and to quote the scriptures. Time does not permit every student to have the opportunity to recite.

The most important support we have are the prayers of our prayer-partners ascending to the throne of God. As we stand in the classrooms, teaching God's precious Word, our prayer partners are interceding for us in their homes.

"But Jesus called them unto Him, and said, 'Suffer little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.'"

TRAILER

One of the fields of service which has expanded this school year is the ministry which takes place each Sunday in the various trailer courts throughout this area. It is a challenge to each of the prospective preachers and singers as they minister to their own congregations in these trailer courts. The typical service in a trailer court is held in the recreation hall. Most services are designed to be an hour in length. Congregational singing, special music, and a short pointed message about the love and grace of our Lord Jesus Christ constitutes one of these services.

Each Wednesday night the leaders of these trailer court services meet for prayer and discussion. The topics of discussion deal with the best way they can reach the congregation at these trailer parks with a short Christ-centered message in a courteous, friendly manner. These times of discussion and earnest prayer have been one of the reasons for the success in presenting the gospel of Christ to the residents of these trailer parks.

It is amazing the response that is given to these services. Each one is well attended, with the residents of these trailer parks taking an active part in the services.

We, the students of Trinity College, praise God for this opportunity -- another field in which the students of Trinity can serve Him.

SUMMER

The Melody Trio and Dr. & Mrs. Watson toured the New England states this summer. They are shown here with a group of friends they met this summer.

As the school year comes to a close students begin to wonder what they are going to do during the summer months. Not only is the matter of employment upon their minds, but also that of doing Christian service. Each summer students from Trinity put into use the knowledge that they have acquired the preceding school year. This experience proves very valuable as these students are preparing themselves for full-time Christian service.

Some of the young people work in full-time Christian service during the summer as song-leaders, evangelists, or pastors. The students from the Child Evangelism class find that they are in demand to teach the children in the Sunday Schools of their own churches. The students who have taken Youth Administration discover that they can gain good practical experience as they lead their young peoples societies in their own churches.

Many of the students of Trinity spent this past summer working in children's camps. This work proved very interesting to them as they acted as counselors, cooks, preachers, and construction workers.

This past season, some of the young people spent part of their time touring throughout the northeastern states singing praises to God and preaching His wonderful Word.

Daily Vacation Bible Schools provided another good opportunity for those specializing in children's work to get practical experience.

This summer extension work causes the students to realize the value of their training in a Bible School and causes them to want to understand the Word of God even better. Accomplishments of this summer extension work are hard to determine, for many souls are reached with the Word of God through the public and private witness of the students, the distribution of tracts, and the testimonies of young Christian men and women as they engage in secular work.

GENERAL CHORUS

The second semester of each year, Mr. & Mrs. Markham direct the Trinity College General Chorus through a season of sacred song concerts. These concerts take place in the various churches of the surrounding area and in the recreation halls of the surrounding communities.

The message carried by these songs and the testimonies of singers are designed to present the Lord Jesus Christ to a lost and dying world. With this goal in mind many hours of practice are spent to present the message of Christ in a professional manner.

The success of this choir is attributed to the prayers that are raised concerning this Trinity College General Chorus and the patient, skillful directing of Mr. & Mrs. Markham.

STUDENT LIFE

YOUTH AND LIFE

Each Saturday night at seven o'clock, the students assemble in the library to join in prayer for the Youth and Life service which begins at 7:45 p.m. This is a spirited, informal program, designed to reach those in spiritual need in this community. Music plays an important part in these programs with solos, duets, quartets, and instrumental numbers being furnished by the student body. The programs are supervised by Mr. Pat Morgan, student supervisor, and Dr. Watson, president of the school.

One of the outstanding features of these programs this year has been the number of interesting spiritual films which have been shown. The first film shown was "Martin Luther", which challenged many hearts. Two films were shown which were produced by the Billy Graham evangelistic campaign, one being "Mr. Texas" and the other, "Souls in Conflict". Each one challenged people to accept Christ as their personal Saviour. Missionary films have also played an important part in these Saturday night services as we have been stirred by the messages of the following films: "Angel in Ebony", "Passion for Souls", "The Flame", and the Christmas film "Holy Night".

Through these Youth and Life services, the school has been able to present many interesting speakers such as Rev. Charles Cramer, a teacher of the school; Rev. Al Gebb, of Lakeland, Florida; Rev. Charles Ide, of Bradenton, Florida; Rev. Paul Jackson, a character dramatist; Dr. Oswald J. Smith, missionary statesman; and Rev. and Mrs. Howard Street, missionaries to Africa. These and others challenged and blessed our hearts with their thought provoking, soul stirring messages.

These Youth and Life services also provide opportunity for some of the outstanding student speakers to serve the Lord by bringing messages at varied Saturday night intervals.

The Youth and Life program is also designed to reach the lost, and we can praise God for the souls that have been saved from these meetings this year.

Dr. & Mrs. Albert Hughes
Dr. Hughes was one of the special speakers at our services at Trinity.

CHAPEL

Amidst the busy rush of studies and school activities, the students of Trinity College gather together twice a week for a time of spiritual feeding. Forgetting the confusion of daily life, they join together in praise and prayer and open their hearts to the words of dedicated men of God. Their hearts are thrilled as they sing the hymns and choruses of praise unto our Lord and Saviour. Some of the most precious memories of the school year are of these chapel services, when with all the students on their knees, they ask God for guidance and strength. Misunderstandings, discouragements, etc. vanish away as the Holy Spirit moves in each heart, meeting the need of each student.

During these past months, God has sent to us many spirit-filled men and women from various phases of the Lord's work. Musicians, missionaries, pastors, and others, have all had their part in firing the enthusiasm of the students to go forth for Him.

Among the outstanding speakers of the year was a converted Catholic priest, Rev. E. N. Landry, who was so interesting and informative that classes were dismissed and the morning spent in listening to him.

Shortly after this, it was our privilege to hear another converted Catholic, Mr. Ronnie Avalon, famed opera singer. His personal testimony thrilled our hearts as he talked with such simple, childlike faith.

Representing the Christian Freedom Foundation, Dr. Kirshner, president of the organization, brought to us an informative talk on "Socialism - Reversal of God's Plan", showing the Christian's responsibility to keep God in our government.

Other interesting speakers included Dr. Hershey, who not only spoke to us from God's Word, but played a number of selections on his musical instrument; and Dr. Robert M. McMillon, pastor of the Bethel Baptist Temple in Erie, Pennsylvania; also, Rev. and Mrs. Orland Corwin, missionaries in South America. Rev. Corwin is a former student of Trinity. Another interesting speaker was Rev. Pappas, missionary to Greece, who brought out to us the fact that there are many even in Europe who do not know of our Lord and that ours is the task and privilege of telling them. On several occasions, students brought to us the message from God's Word.

Perhaps some of the most inspiring messages have been brought to us by our own president, Dr. William T. Watson. Although he is a familiar figure here at Trinity, his messages from the Lord never fail to challenge us afresh for His service. It was Dr. Watson who gave us our year's verse, "My presence shall go with thee." Exodus 23.14.

Yes, we had many speakers of many types, from many different fields of interest, and with various ways of presenting their message, but each in his own way left a part of himself with us and made us richer. They all challenged us to want to do more for our Lord and without exception they impressed upon us the fact that if we aren't missionaries here at home and in school, we'll never be successful missionaries on the field. If we can't be an effective witness to our families, roommates, business associates, and friends, we'll never win many souls for the Lord in heathen lands. Everyone has to start from where he now stands and if we want to live and work for the Lord, we must start here and now.

PRAYER LIFE

Prayer is the communication that man can have with God through his mediator, the Lord Jesus Christ. The welfare and success of a person in Christian service is determined largely by the amount of time that person spends in prayer.

Here at Trinity College the students are encouraged to pray. Each Tuesday night has been set aside as the night for dormitory prayer meetings. These times we have met together have been some of the most blessed and inspiring times that we have had in our school year, with hymns, prayer choruses, testimonies, and portions of scripture being read, all in praise to God. After the praise portion of these prayer meetings, each one then kneels and asks his Heavenly Father for the guidance he needs, and for the needs that must be met in his life.

God has richly blessed these times of prayer and we have seen many miraculous answers as we have prayed and He has answered.

Deadlines, copy, snapshots--all were terms which became very familiar to the members of Beacon staff. Many times these words proved to be a problem as we endeavored to put the various parts of the yearbook together and maintain the continuity of thought necessary for a well-designed yearbook.

This yearbook could not have been a reality without the cooperation and patience of the student body and of the faculty. Much time has been spent in the production of this book, as long hours, neglected studies, and loss of sleep seem to be the formula for editing a yearbook. We of the staff do not regret the time spent, however, as we trust this book may be a remembrance in future years of the many times God blessed and answered prayers while we were students here at Trinity.

SOCIAL LIFE

Students of the school enjoy a wholesome social atmosphere. Special emphasis is placed upon the spiritual development of the individual and his growth in the knowledge of God's Word. The social life of the students is determined by past experiences in handling the students and through this experience is gained the knowledge of what the students want and what they need in the way of social life.

On special days parties are given for the entire student body and it is here that students find relaxation, enjoyment, and Christian fellowship. For example, a Halloween masquerade party is given for the students each year and the students each year and the students always find it challenging to prepare some costume. Another of the big events is the annual Valentine's Day party in which a king and queen are crowned, representative of the freshman fellow and girl that has grown the most spiritually through the year. A big part of one's Bible School training is his social development in handling himself with other Christians and with other people, so, at these parties the student finds a time to enjoy this fellowship.

Regular Snack Bar periods are observed at which time the young men and women fellowship together. This is twice a day, every day during the week. Friday night is date night at the school, in and around the snack bar, and every third Friday night the young men may accompany the young women on a dinner date off the campus. Every Saturday night is also date night and students attend at the school the Youth and Life service held for and by the students and the young people of the Clearwater area. During these Snack Bar periods students may purchase at the fountain refreshments of all types, including soft drinks, candies, pop corn, peanuts, etc. Visitors of the school always find a good relationship between the students. Each one of these regular activities plays a big part in the life of each student.

Every Thursday afternoon is devoted to a recreation period during which students find time for exercising in all types of games on the field. These recreation periods include volleyball, basketball, football, etc.

At Trinity College the students find the special spiritual emphasis upon devotional life of each individual that is necessary to maintain a good atmosphere, clean Christian fellowship, and clean Christian character. One half hour in the morning and in the evening is devoted to a quiet time in which the students may carry on their devotions and a quiet time to speak to the Lord. This helps each student to stay on the spiritual plane that is required of a Christian. Those especially busy in Christian service find that these times are the most precious to them because it is a time for them to be still and let God speak to them. They find that they must keep themselves in touch with God in order that their extension work might count for Him. The slogan, "An idle mind is the Devil's workshop" holds especially true for Christian young men and women.

Consequently, those that take part in the social activities of the school and of the extension program, yet who keep in touch with God, are the ones whose ministry is counting for Him now and will count for Him in later years.

In a school of this size where everyone knows the Lord as Saviour and King, there is a special tie that binds the students into one happy family in Christ. It is this feeling that plays a big part in the social life of this school. Yet above all this, the aim is still to have Christ glorified in every part, even the social life. So truly, the love of Christ creating a love for each other is responsible for the atmosphere that makes Christian young men and women enjoy living their religion.

MARRIED STUDENTS

This year at Trinity we have had more married students than at any other time in the history of the school. It has been a real joy and blessing to have these students as a part of our school body. These couples live off campus in trailers or in furnished apartments. They have organized themselves as a group known as the Crusaders for Christ. They meet once a week for prayer meeting, and then at various opportune times they take part in Christian services. These couples come from all over the United States, but they find that loneliness soon vanishes as they fellowship with other Christian couples.

The social activities of the married students are confined on a whole to their own group. They celebrate one another's birthdays and other special occasions. However, they take an active part in the large social functions sponsored by the college.

Many of these students work part or full-time jobs while carrying on their studies. It is not an easy life, but it is one that is very rewarding as they realize that they are training for service for their King. Their testimony and counsel is of great encouragement to the younger students of the school. We of Trinity are proud of the active place these married students fill in our school.

KESWICK WEEK

One of the highlights of the school year was known as Keswick week. It was a week when studies were put aside and the time was devoted to lectures for a deeper spiritual life. The dates of this week were January 22-29, 1956.

The week opened with Dr. John McNeill bringing a very stirring message on sin and its characteristics. The closing service of the week was a thrilling characterization of John the Baptist by Rev. Paul Jackson.

There were many outstanding speakers during this week. Dr. Albert Hughes brought some soul-stirring messages all centered around the text as found in Luke 24:13-32.

Dr. John McNeill brought six messages during the week which will long be remembered for their practicalness.

Dr. Jimmy Johnson, noted evangelist, brought messages which caused the students to search their hearts and seek for a deeper spiritual walk.

Rev. Roy Gustafson, an alumni of the school, gave expository messages from the Bible and answered many questions concerning God's Word.

Dr. Henry Grube brought a series of messages entitled "How Does God Speak to People Today?"

Rev. Merrill Dunlop, noted Gospel song writer, brought two messages on the importance of music in Christian work.

Each night at 8 o'clock during the entire week, Rev. Paul Jackson presented a series of characterizations of "Men Who Met the Master." These characters were of men recorded in the Bible with whom Jesus had dealt personally. It was a very effective service in which decisions were made for Christ.

One of the highlights of the week was Mrs. Joseph Cannon's presentation of an illustrated message by use of the flannelgraph. She also gave a short talk on the usefulness of flannelgraph in reaching children for Christ.

These meetings were designed to draw each individual closer to God. It was set aside as a time for the deep searching of each heart by the Holy Spirit that all might be effective workers for Christ. God did not fail us in this endeavor, for He met the cries of many hearts and answered many prayers. Throughout life the students will probably remember this Keswick week as one of the greatest weeks they ever spent at Trinity College. Only God knows the decisions and objectives which were decided upon during this week of meetings. We thank God and give Him the praise for all the victories that were won. We set out with a determination to make our lives count every moment as we serve our Lord.

Mrs. Joseph Cannon is standing beside one of her picture stories which she uses to win boys and girls for Christ.

ALUMNI SPEAK

By Howard and Rene Street

Mr. & Mrs. Howard Street

Beloved, what is it that concerns us most today? Why is it the cry arises in the whole camp for power? What is it that we want to do more than anything else here on earth? What is it that today's Pastors and Teachers, Evangelists and Missionaries cry out to God to do for their congregations? I am sure you are following me, but if you do not know I'll tell you what it is—we are pleading with God to cleanse us and make us real, and powerful WITNESSES for Him, wherever we are, and whatever we may be doing. It is of prime importance in these terrible and terrifying latter days in which we are living. To be WITNESSES for Jesus for the souls of men. How we should thank God for Trinity College, and the consecrated, God-given staff that minister unto us, for they see and feel this burning need, and are passing that torch on to us to rear high and in turn pass it on to yet others. Since the beginning of our Institution it has been so and we know that will continue to be until Jesus comes. Mrs. Street and I saw that flame back in the early days of Trinity, felt it burn into our souls, know the heat of it today still, and we thank God for it, praying earnestly that we can and will be witnesses unto Him in our little bit of a corner in Africa.

Our field in the Belgian Congo has been rightly named "The Miracle Field" by many, and small wonder, for it God be for us, who can be against us, and miracles will happen to make possible this witnessing with power promised by Jesus. About a thousand miles inland from the coast, just a few degrees below the searing and merciless Equator, lies the Kwango District to which we were called of God in 1938. We know that when He sends us out, He will also supply; when we are prepared for His Service, and commit our ways unto Him to do His will then He will provide and we praise Him that He has never yet let us down! Newly married, greenhorns to the core, and inadequate within our selves, nevertheless we started out even as we had entered Bible Institute, with lots of faith in our Wonderful Lord, but little else. Praise His Name, He honors faith today even as in the day of Abraham! We have seen God move in answer to an ignorant, uncouth African's faith in the heart of that Black Belgian Congo, and we have seen Him reach down and answer a man of wealth and education here in America because of that same kind of faith, and we know He will answer your faith too in whatsoever category you need Him.

Baptist Mid-Missions has only been interested in the Kwango District and the Belgian Congo for about four years, but God has moved in such miraculous ways in just the past three years, that this area might be staffed and built up, that this name of the Miracle Field has been given it. Four years ago there was quite a controversy that Baptist Mid-Missions would be able to enter that field, then in a most wonderful way, all the obstacles were swept away and even the hugh piles of red tape were pushed aside in Government offices out there and we received our official recognition - something which usually takes years to obtain. We had covenanted together and with the Lord for thirty missionaries as a beginning staff, but we put out a fleece - we wanted those thirty within two years! Did we limit God by telling Him what we wanted? Not at all - for within that two-year period He had answered our faith by sending not the thirty we had covenanted for, but thirty-seven! A perfect number MORE than we had asked for or believed to have. Oh why was our faith so small! Why couldn't we have asked for more? We exercise ourselves for being faithless, while at the same time praise God for faithfulness. Our Field is not nearly adequate, even at present writing, with this number as a skelton staff, but the God Who answered our fleece will continue to meet our need and give us more young people to fill the terrible gaps in this field. "Ye shall be witnesses unto me . . ." was the promise with power, and we know He will answer.

We are serving at the present time an area of nearly 800,000 souls, the overwhelming majority of whom need Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour! Listen to me; how can even thirty-seven, or fifty, yea a hundred meet the challenge of that many needy people with all there is to do on a Mission Field? Our Mission had seven stations amongst that great multitude of people, BUT WE DO NOT YET HAVE A DOCTOR! Can you imagine even half that number of souls and us with no medical skill amongst them? We praise God that just now there are two nurses on the Field, but there should be at least one on each station, and two would be better, but even that number would provide no others for staggering their furloughs. Evey station is pleading, and crying unto God earnestly for at least two other couples to do the tremendous evangelistic work so desperately needed right now in their sector. As well, each station needs more educational workers, for the Missions are the schools in the Belgian Congo. It has only been in the end of last year that the Government has offered very meager lay-schooling for the native population, which stirs as a giant in his slumber, and is clamoring for education. The position is precarious, for if we do not now provide the education they need, then it goes without saying that they will turn to anything they can get, to our future detriment and possible overthrow! God help us to step into the gap today.

The spiritual picture is bright for Baptist Mid-Missions field for God is at work in our midst in a wonderful way. In the little town of Kikwit, a spot on the Kuilu River of nearly 300 Europeans and over 15,000 natives, it was our great privilege to baptize 200 souls in a three-year period. There are sixty villages in our area for which we are responsible with the Gospel, with three large Poste Churches - a central gathering point to which the Christians gather once each month for a day of conference and the Lord's Table. Each of these large Church Centers has over 600 members, and the crowds that come to the services will easily total over a thousand. In these Churches too, it has been our blessing to see baptized another seven hundred souls upon profession of their faith in Christ. God has been working in a miraculous way, His wonders to perform and we praise Him indeed, but the end is not yet! How we hammer at the Africian to be a true witness amongst his own people, and we do priase God they too are getting under the burden, realizing the need, shouldering their responsibility, getting out the Word, with the blessed old, old, Story of redemption.

LOOKING WITHIN-- A TOUR INSIDE OUR SCHOOL

Come right in! We'll be glad for you to see our school. Let us show you around. As we enter the front door we see the most popular spot on campus -- the mail boxes. Don't look so sad, Bob, You got a letter.

Waiting to greet us at the reception desk is Mother Titus, Housemother.

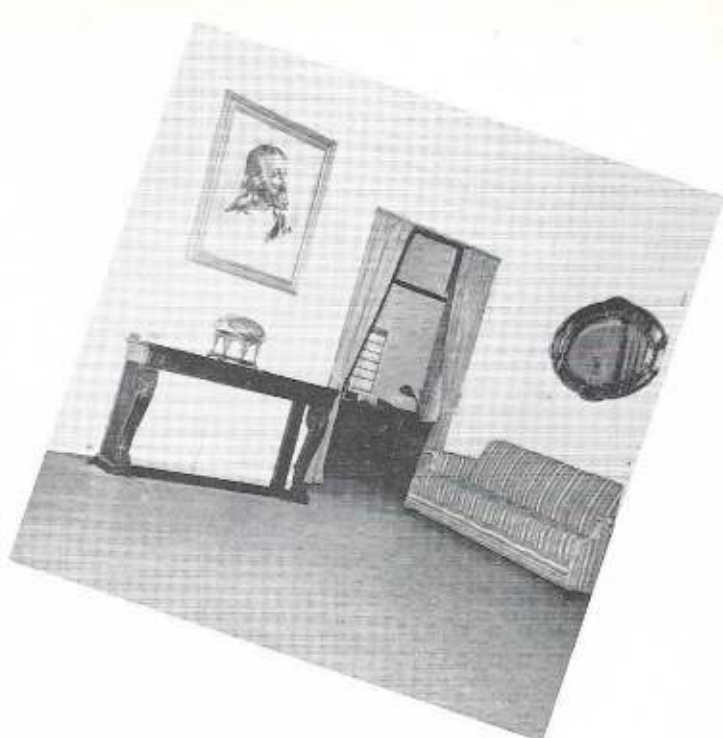

Before we leave the front lobby, would you like to buy a book from Mother Burrell who has charge of our bookstore? You'll surely see one you want.

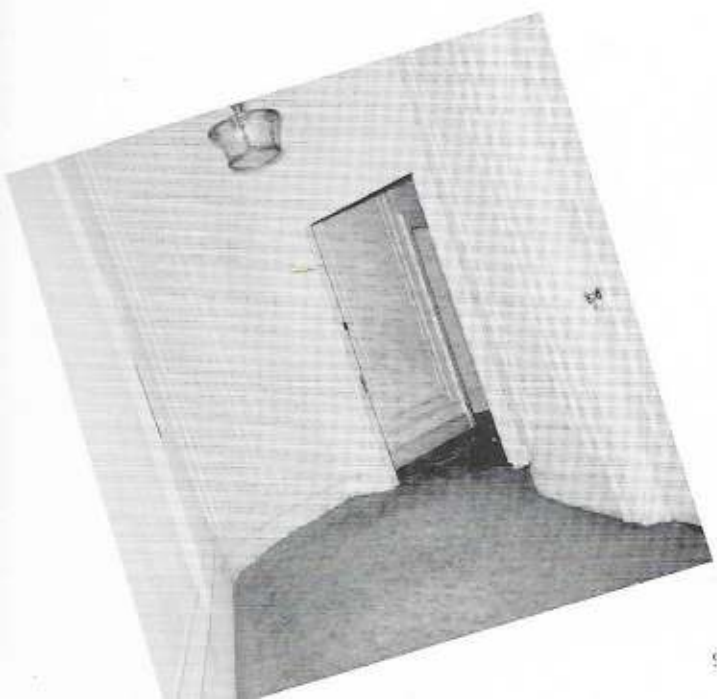

Our front staircase is very picturesque, won't you agree?

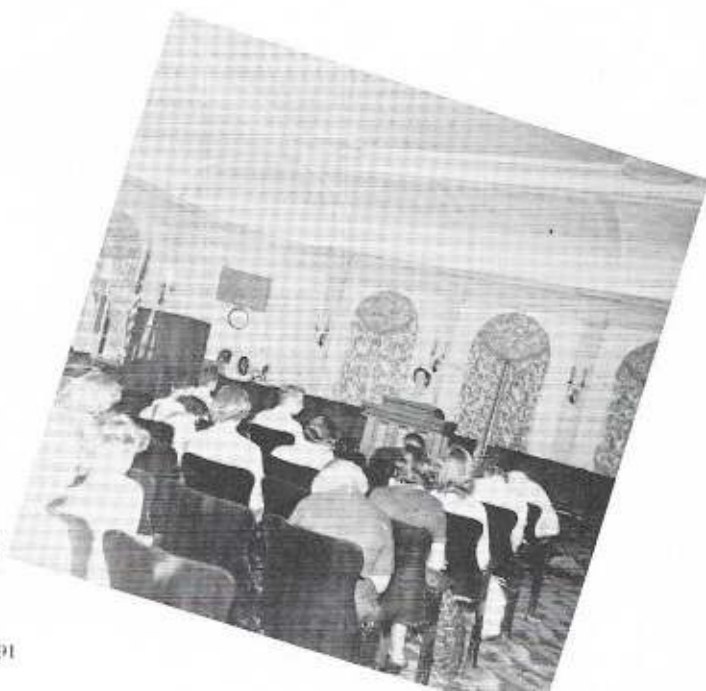

The picture of our risen Lord? Yes, it is He Who guides our daily lives and activities.

Now, let's turn to the right, through the hallway into our chapel.

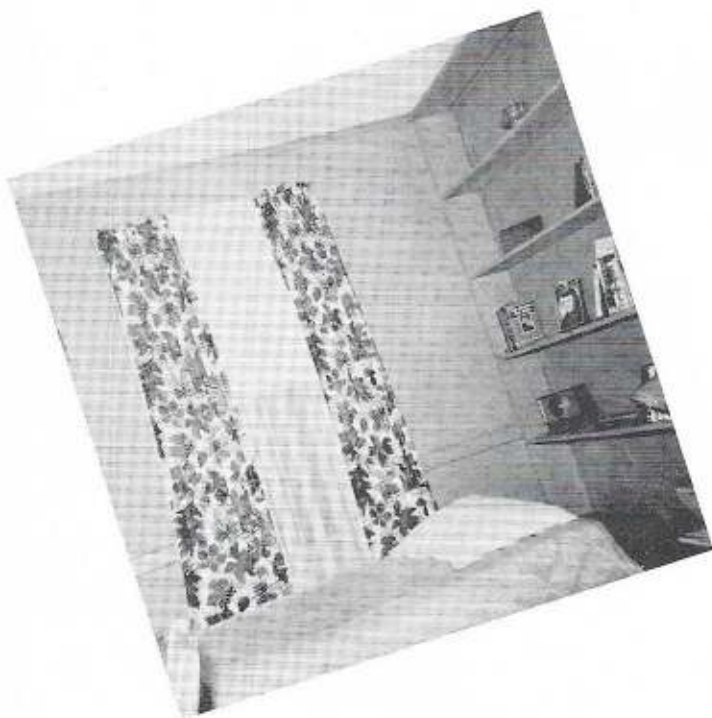

Here Mrs. Watson is testing her Bible History and Geography students to find out how much they have learned.

We'll leave the main building for a moment now and go to Pilgrim Hall. Dr. Aughinbaugh is conducting a class downstairs in Room B.

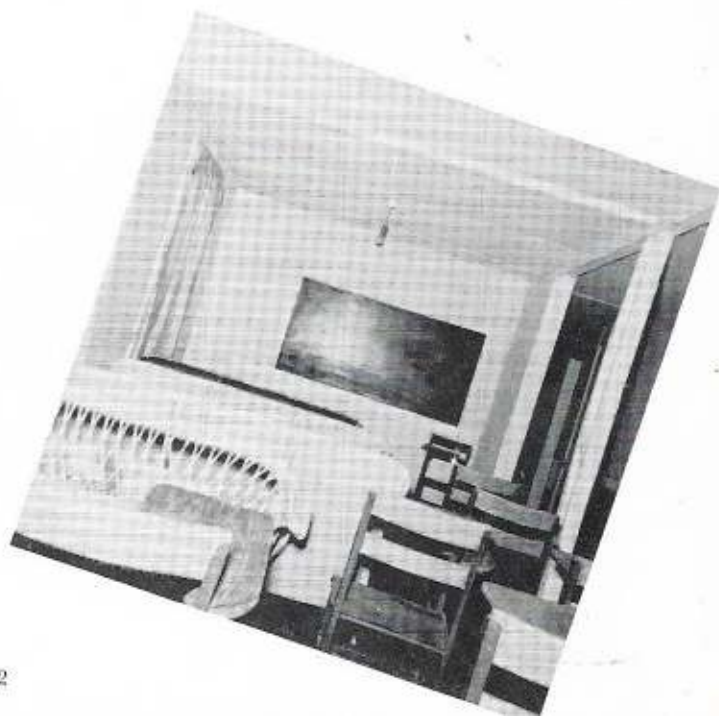

While some students are in classes, others have free periods during which they study. Here are a few of them in the Sunken Lounge.

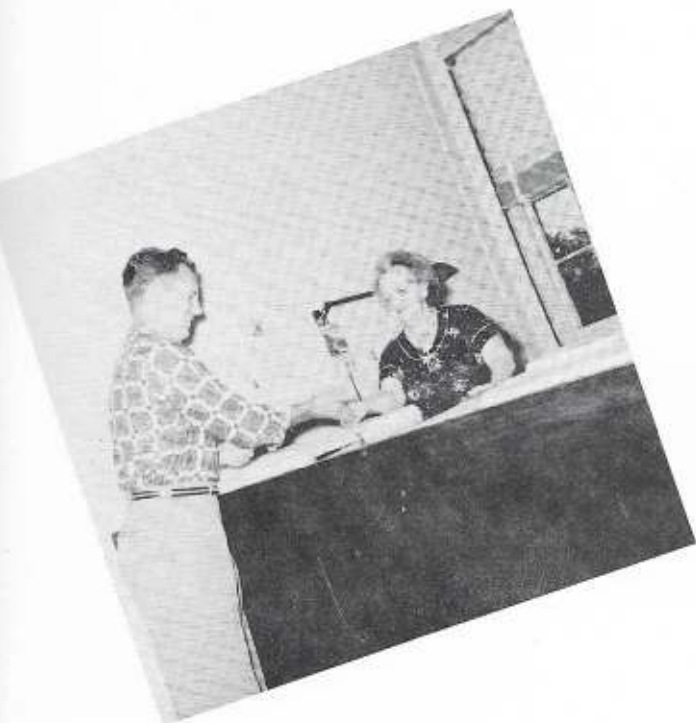

Upstairs in this same building are dormitory rooms for some of the fellows. This is one of them.

Across the driveway from Pilgrim Hall is the other men's dormitory on the first floor of which we find the Men's Lounge. Some of our classes are also conducted here.

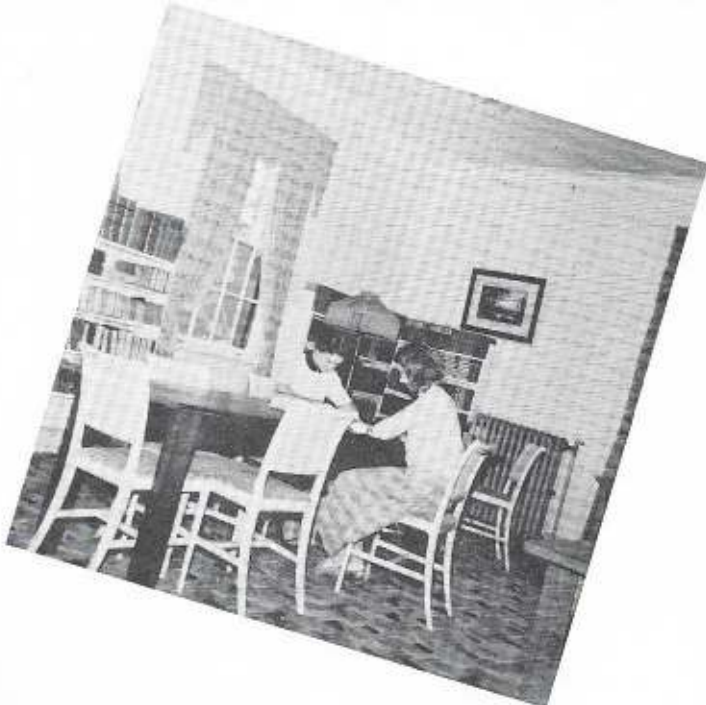

Back to the main building and up the front stairs into the office of the bookkeeper and the registrar. There's Bill Berryhill! Is he giving Mrs. Myers money for notes or paying his bill?

After two periods of classes it is FREE TIME! Hungry students disappear from classrooms and appear at the snack bar where they enjoy food and conversations. Lud Golz, that paper isn't good to eat!

"Quiet, please", as we enter our library. The sign says, "No Conversation". Fran Kimball and LaRene Loflin are for once following instructions and working studiously over their books.

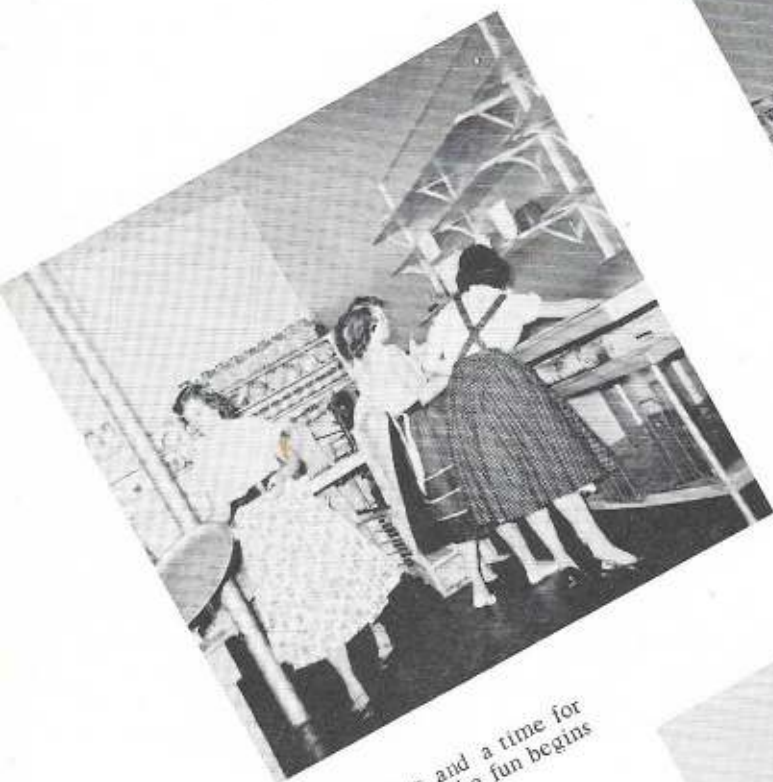

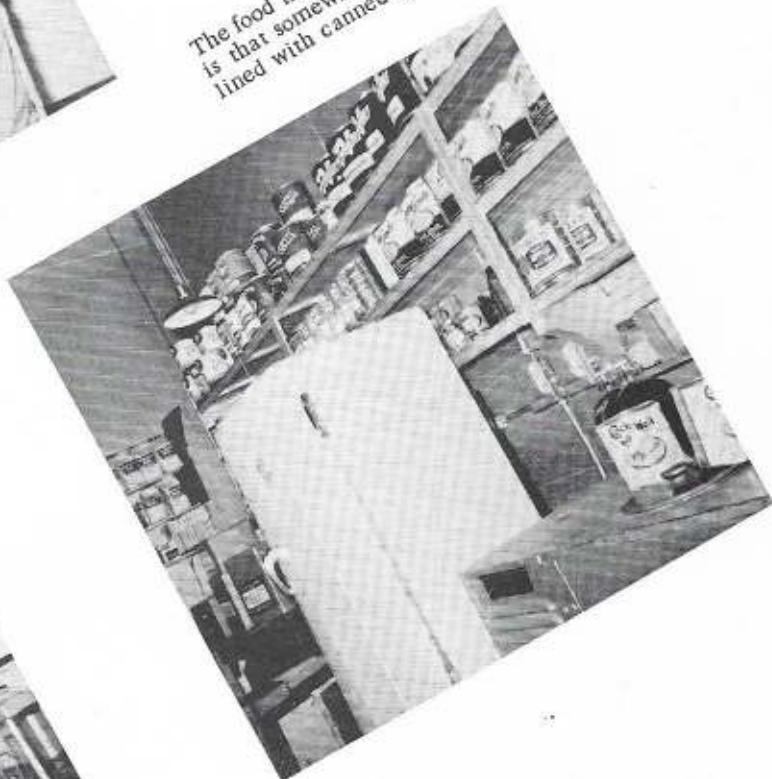

Free time doesn't last forever. Back to classes as Dr. Bragg gives us the principles of Hermeneutics. Al Tedder looks around to see if anyone caught that last joke.

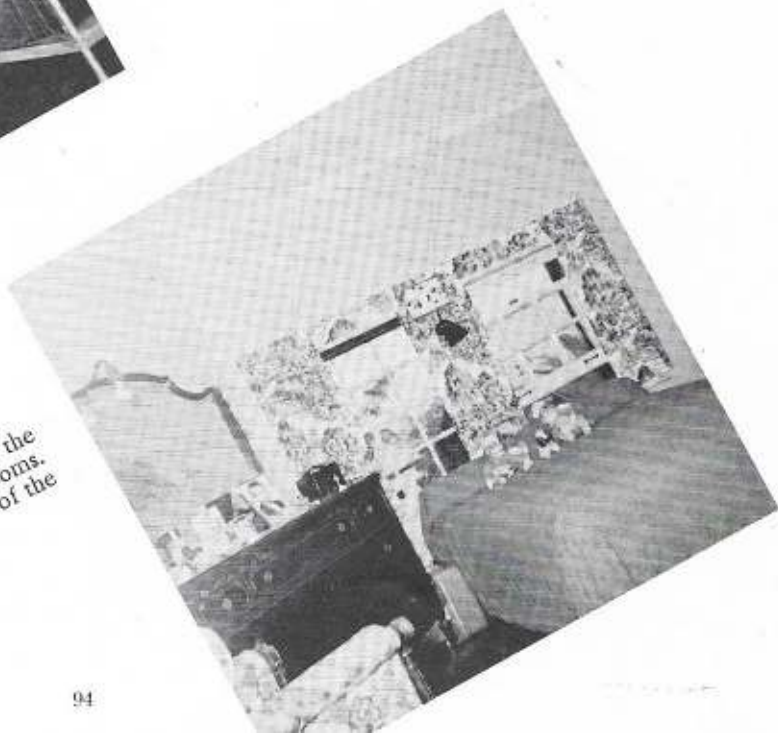

After five classes of heavy brainwork, students are ready to eat again. Pop, what did you spill?

The food must come from somewhere. This is that somewhere! The pantry shelves are lined with canned goods.

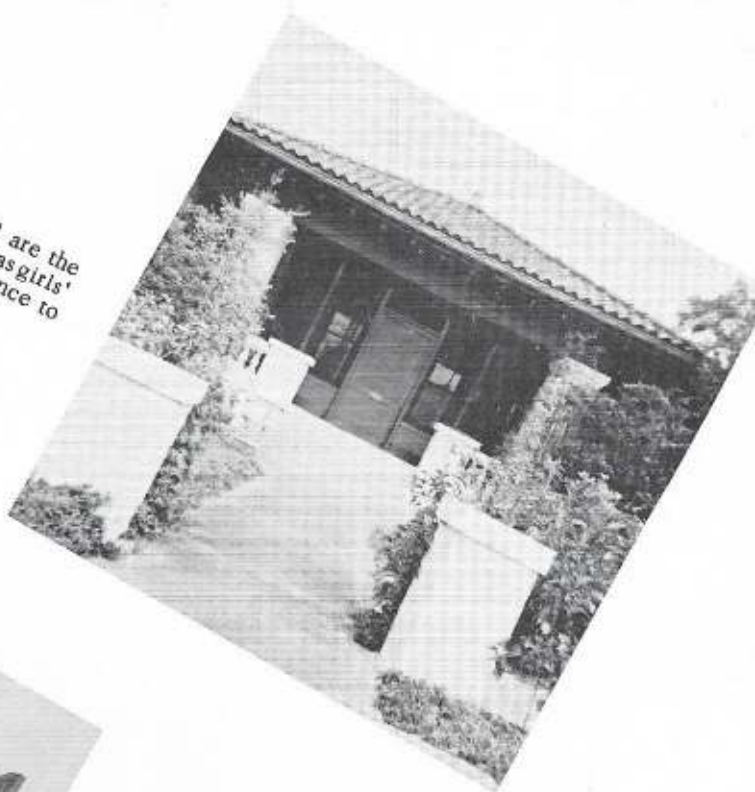

There is a time for eating and a time for working. The food is gone; the fun begins -- dishes!

Upstairs in the east and west wings of the main building are girls' dormitory rooms. This attractive room is that of one of the monitors.

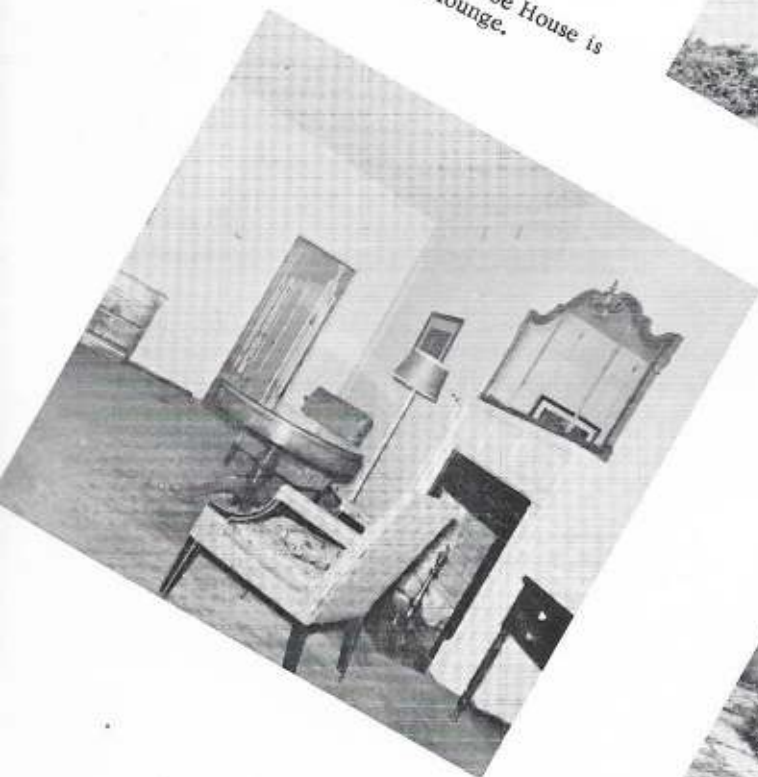

Across the lawn and beyond the wall are the two recently-acquired buildings used as girls' dormitories. This is the front entrance to Coe House.

This spacious living room in Coe House is used by the girls for a study lounge.

Behind Coe House is the other girls' dormitory, Sunshine Cottage. Would you like to look inside the building?

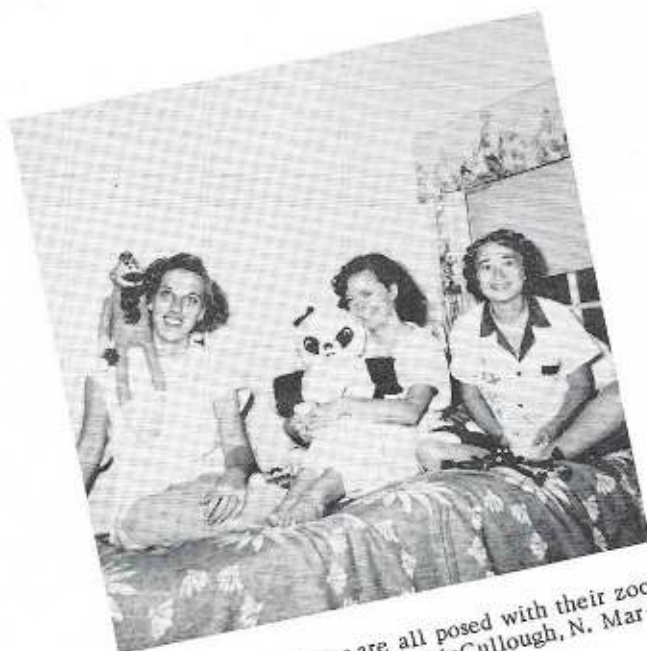

This is the home of a couple of girls for the school year.

RELAXED

The girls who live in the Coe house have gathered to have their devotions before going to bed.

Three roommates are all posed with their zoo before retiring. They are P. McCullough, N. Marcum, and D. Callan.

The sleeping beauty is none other than Betty Musgrave. This is her favorite hobby.

General Ken Moon reporting to Mr. Massey for duty.

The Melody Trio, JoAnn Ketchum, Majorie Brown and Dottie Eakin, pause from their busy touring schedule to smile for the camera.

Marjorie Brown washing, or from the smile she may just be pretending.

The Charleston girls, Margie Fields, Lauretta Woods, Sandra Dick and Julia Morrison, sheepishly smiling over their shoulders. Could it be a guilty conscience?

Katie and Mrs. Hull, mother and daughter team, study with the same objective in mind of winning children to the Lord.

Arriving or leaving Margie Garges? She must have had quite a trip!

Going some place Al Tedder? Really looks as though he is leading singing-----fishes maybe.....

Jim Fugate are you lying about your age or are you really only one year old?

Julia Morrison and George Keller--- future husband and wife team?? Don't let the picture fool you, you never really get this close!

OFF GUARD

Is he really sleeping? No, John is playing possum. Another one of his tricks of magic.

Dr. Watson seems to be enjoying Paul Estes birthday cake. Paul is the son of Keith and Dee Estes.

Is it a trance or are they in love? It is hard to tell when these girls get together. They are E. Faddis, A. Williams, J. Reisig, and C. Fish.

Anyone want to have a date? We are ready! P. Ball, M. Garges, M. Brown, J. Ketchum, and Fran Kimball are all waiting in a line.

Twins????? No. . . . .these are Janie Fromer and Nancy Zelt.

It's graduation time and everybody gets into the act. Rev. Charles Crammer is the graduating student and with him are his wife and daughter.

Posing prettily in the sun are Doris Bernhardt, Mary Louise Buscheck and Katie Hull, members of the Sunshine Cottage Trio.

A couple members of the gang, Lew Clark and John Corts, out working on the road.

PROGRESS

Yesterday someone thought about TODAY. . .and today others are thinking about TOMORROW. That is the basis for progress whether it be in the business world, the field of medicine, or the sciences and arts.

Vision and education are vital ingredients. . .without them there can be no progress.

You, the students of TODAY, are the potential leaders for a better TOMORROW. Make the most of your opportunities.
