TRINITY...ON THE MOVE

A TIME OF TRANSITION

A TIME OF CHANGE

A TIME OF NEW BEGINNINGS :

The school year of 1987-88 has marked two important milestones for Trinity. Construction of the new campus on the Pasco County line began in January with plans to move in by the fall semester of 1988. Thus, this has been the last year students have walked the halls, sat in the classrooms, and lived in the dorms of the Dunedin campus on beautiful Clearwater Bay. A touch of bittersweet nostalgia is now mixed with excited anticipation of the new campus - the first time for Trinity to have completely new facilities.

This year also saw the introduction of the Trinity College Graduate School. Under the able leadership of Dr. Paul Enns, the graduate school has begun filling a void for advanced training in ministry, not only in the Tampa Bay community, but also in the entire state of Florida. The new graduate school boasts an excellent resident faculty, as well as such visiting national lecturers as Dr. Dwight Pentecost and Dr. John Walvoord, both of Dallas Theological Seminary.

Yes, Trinity is on the move—stepping out with a confidence born of a history of distinction in training men and women for effective ministry and of an eager expectancy of seeing God's guiding hand at work in these new challenges as we "reach forth unto those things which are before" (Phil. 3:13).

MISSIONS CONFERENCE

Anywhere with Jesus was the theme of the annual Missions Conference held in October. The messages and seminars during the conference were designed not only to instruct and challenge each individual as to his personal responsibility in world evangelism, but also to inform us on how to implement a vibrant missions program in the local church. Approximately 25 missionary representatives serving around the world attended and taught seminars, gave challenging messages, and met with students individually.

Above left: Rebecca Turner receives the Manford Kettering Missions Scholarship from Mrs. Kettering as Professor Collins looks on.

PRISON MINISTRY

Bottom Right: Stan Dunagin and an inmate.

One ministry in which Trinity students have been actively involved is Prison Ministry. Under the leadership of Professor Bob Loeffler, students visit various prisons in the state of Florida and witness to the inmates. The pictures on this page were taken during Sonshine 87' --an evangelistic rally sponsored by the prisoners of Zephyrhills Correctional Institute to which Trinity students were invited. Some Trinity students and professors teach classes in the prisons for college credit and/or personal enrichment. Another ministry headed up by Trinity students and Professor Loeffler is Jericho House--a halfway house for recently released prisoners to help them readjust to society, to present them with the claims of Christ, and to disciple those who know the Lord.
